FORTS CRUMBLE UNDER ATTACKS

Preparations Being Made For Terrific Struggle Near Verdun.

DENIAL FROM PARIS.

French Say Germans Have Been Thrown on Defensive—Attempts of Crown Prince to Retrieve Check

Paris Oct. 21—That important events are developing in the immediate theater of war was indicated by a sudden tightening of the censorship today. Only yesterday's events were discussed in the official declaration.

But it is understood that today the allies are making a determined effort to retake Lille, where the general German headquarters and staff for the entire right wing are understood to be under fire of the French artillery.

At headquarters here there is an air of great expectancy. All of the high officials admit that they expect momentous and especially good news in the near future. It is generally believed that the Germans are again retiring inside the Belgian frontier although there is as yet no confirmation of the report that they have been compelled to relinquish their hold on Ostend.

Reports are current here and generally credited, that the German attempt to mount their heavy artillery along the coast for offensive operations against the British gunboats which are supporting the extreme left of the allied line has utterly failed. The guns have been dismounted by wonderfully accurate shooting from the fleet and from the guns of the naval brigade now in action along the coast.

The Germans attempted a submarine raid, but according to the reports received here, failed to make any headway, all of their torpedoes launched going wide of the marks.

Several of the outer forts of Verdun have crumbled under the terrific bombardment to which they have been subjected for weeks by the heavy siege guns of the Germans, according to an official Berlin statement sent by way of Amsterdam.

With these outer fortifications in the hands of the Germans the way is open for an attack on the main defenses and preparations are being made for a desperate assault.

News dispatches from Paris carry emphatic denial of the weakening of Verdun's defense and state that a strong French force has begun operations in the region of Camp des Romains fort and that the enemy has been thrown on the defensive all along the Meuse.

If the Germans have succeeded in making a breach in the defenses of Verdun it means that vital changes must be made in the allies' campaign. No fortress has succeeded in withstanding the pounding of the Germans' heaviest guns and the fall of this "key to the French defense" would force the adoption of an entirely new plan of campaign.

Military experts in Paris profess to believe that the movement is a desperate attempt to divert the French from their Alsace-Lorraine operations and declare that counter-plans have been made to meet such a move. It is believed in the French capital that the German crown prince is making a last futile attempt to retrieve his repeated checks and repulses and save his army from certain defeat.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Japanese admiralty announces that a German surveying ship had been captured and another sunk.

Monday, November 16, is the date set for the opening of the Federal reserve banks.

Russia has mobilized and placed on a war footing her Black Sea fleet, according to a telegram from Kustenje, Roumania. Russia has been massing troops near the Turkish border in Caucasia and near Odessa for two weeks. It is believed war will be declared within a week.

Traffic through the Panama Canal was resumed yesterday after being blocked for a week by a landslide into Culebra cut. Nearly a dozen merchantmen were waiting at each end of the waterway for the clearing of the channel, and it is expected that two days will be required to put them all through.

In a dispatch from Rotterdam the correspondent of the London Evening News declares that the German marines are leaving Antwerp to rejoin the German fleet, and the German ships at Kiel are being extensively provisioned. A dispatch from Stavenger, Norway, says the British steamer Glitera, of Lieth, was sunk yesterday 12 miles off the Norwegian coast, by a German submarine. The crew of the steamer was ordered into the boats and the valves were opened.

Though the allies were slow in coming to the rescue of Belgium, when she was attacked by Germany, cabinet ministers who have established the Belgian government at Havre, France, express the belief that their war torn country would be able to escape the fate of being made a province of the German empire. "England's pledge that she would carry the war through is assurance to us that she will never permit the destruction of our nation," said one of the ministers.

President Wilson frowns on agitation at this time looking to immediate enlargement of the military and naval policy of this government. Nevertheless, it may be stated positively that several of the President's closest legislative friends and advisers already have decided upon a quiet but important program of improvement, to be commenced through the appropriation bills at the short session, and to be continued until the army and naval establishments of the United States furnish an efficient nucleus in men and equipment for a large defensive army.

An official communication issued by the French war office last night, says: "The following are extracts from a letter found on a German prisoner, dated Dusseldorf, October 4. "With us, officers and soldiers are becoming rarer. We have no more men than are adequate. Volunteers and men of the landwehr are all we have today. If you saw these soldiers you would turn your head. Everybody is being taken. It is Germany's last hope. All the aged men are becoming soldiers. Have you bread? Many complain they have none."

AMERICANS TRIED IN LONDON

Accused of Having Caused Girl's Death By Drug.

London, Oct. 21—Considerable interest has been aroused by the trial at the Old Bailey Police Court of Orlando Edgar Miller, an American charged with manslaughter, the police alleging that he caused the death of Miss Kate Scott, at Miller's Institute, at Isleworth, last June, by the administration of a drug.

William Willcox, a home office expert, today testified as to the dangerous character of the drug and declared that it was quite unsuitable for Miss Scott's ailment.

Miller, testifying in his own behalf, said he had been given charge of delirium cases in Chicago by Cook County Hospital and had been very successful in bringing about a cure. His method of treatment, he said, had been fully recognized by many physicians in America.

He also declared that he came to England from the United States on the invitation of the Duke and Duchess of Manchester.

COLORED MAID GIVES EVIDENCE

Testimony Dramatic and Highly Damaging to Mrs. Carman.

SHE SAID "I SHOT HIM"

Girl Alleges She Saw Long Blue Revolver in Hand of Accused—Saw Woman Rush Back to House.

Mneola, L. I., Oct., 21.—Celia Coleman, colored, maid in the Carman home at the time Mrs. Louise Bailey, was shot to death in the doctor's office, gave dramatic and highly damaging evidence against the physician's wife at the opening of the trial today.

On the night of the murder the girl swore that Mrs. Carman came downstairs and walked out of the house through the kitchen.

A minute or two later the witness asserted she heard the sound of breaking glass and the report of a revolver.

Mrs. Carman entered the kitchen a minute later, she said.

"I shot him," she said, according to the maid.

"Did Mrs. Carman have anything in her hand?" asked the district attorney.

"Yes," replied the witness," she had a long blue revolver. I was standing in the pantry door when she rushed back into the room and she came right over to me."

Frank Farrell, a tramp, who has been housed by the State since early July, is due to be the next witness.

Farrell has asserted he was standing in the yard and saw a woman approaching the window of Dr. Carman's office, fire the shot, and then disappear around the rear of the house. Farrell's description of this woman tallied with that of Mrs. Carman.

COMPROMISE ON COTTON

House Leaders Get Together on Relief Plan to End Deadlock.

Washington, Oct. 21—With a compromise relief proposal under consideration in the House and a joint conference committee at work on the War Tax bill, the tangled legislative situation cleared slightly yesterday and hope of an adjournment of Congress by Saturday again put in an appearance.

The cotton forces in the House, which have been holding up the War Revenue bill as a means of forcing cotton relief legislation, gave way when the House Rules Committee reported a special rule for the consideration of the Lever Cotton Warehouse bill and the Glass bill authorizing the acceptance of 100 per cent. commercial paper as a basis for Federal reserve currency. The rule carried a special amendment to the Glass bill, which would authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to deposit in banks in the cotton and tobacco States $250,000,000 of Government funds to be used in meeting the cotton crisis. The funds would be secured by a sale of Panama Canal bonds or by an issue of $250,000,000 2 per cent. Government notes maturing January 1, 1916.

With the uderstanding that this proposal was to be considered in the House, the cotton States representatives allowed the House leaders to send the War Revenue bill to conference. The House and Senate conferees immediately began a session which ran well into the night and in which all of the undisputed sections of the bill were promptly agreed upon.

GERMANS ANNIHILATED.

French Mine Ground And Eliminate Three of Kaiser's Battalions.

From the Battle Front, via Paris Oct. 21—The German invaders are meeting a vigorous resistance in their effort to shorten their lines and rest their right wing farther southwestward upon the English Channel. Much of the fighting is being done in the obscurity of fogs.

French marines Monday gave a good account of themselves. German troops tried a surprise attack on the marines Sunday, but the French force held the field works against superior numbers. The fight lasted all day, and then the Germans contented themselves with cannonading the position of the marines.

A thick fog covered the entire region Monday, and the marines, accustomed to such weather conditions crept toward the German trenches "No shooting" was the order; "use the bayonet!."

The marines got within 30 feet of the trenches before they were seen. Their coming was heralded too late for the defenders, who were bayoneted in the trenches and beyond the trenches as they ran. Four hundred German prisoners were taken.

One of the places where the French had been most harassed is near the "elbow" of the western line. The important position there had been taken and retaken frequently during the last three weeks. Every time the Germans had been obliged to abandon the position they returned in great force and pushed back the French by weight of number.

The French took the position for the twelfth time and held it for ten hours. Then came a shock of the human battering ram, and the French gradually gave way. The Germans began fortifying the place, but while they were engaged in this task the earth heaved, and there was a deafening explosion. The ten hours the French had held the point had been sufficient to mine every rod of the ground. It is estimated that three German battalions were annihilated.

ALLEGED GERMAN CRUELTY.

Frenchman Describes Scenes in Wake of Kaiser's Army.

London, Oct. 21—Cutting off live cows' feet by the Germans is described by a Frenchman, an Oxford graduate, in a letter. He says:

"On our route there are come corpses of horses, sheep and cows, and these begin to smell very bad. In villages the Germans are obliged to abandon or destory everything. They kill all cattle or cut their feet off.

"I visited this morning a magnificent chateau. All the little diamond pane and plate glass widows and doors were broken and furniture was all ripped up by a knife. From the stable motors and horses were gone, and carriages in the coach house were shattered.

"The Germans rain on us thousands of balls and shells, but they shoot so badly there are very few wounded on our side; on the contrary, in crossing the field of battle we count their dead by thousands. The other day on a front of kilometers there were 7,000 dead Germans."

TAX COMMISSION DENIES FRICTION

Report of Serious Disagreement Badly Exaggerated, Say Members.

COX IS CONFIDENT.

Speaker of the House Believes Work Will Be Completed in Time for Session in January.

Richmond, Oct. 21.—Members of the State Tax Commission deny that there has been any bickering or disagreeable differences during the time devoted to the consideration of the tax laws of the State. There have been disagreements, of course, but where unanimity was impossible on points which naturally lend themselves to disputations, the opposing forces have agreed to disagree.

The commisssion is hard at work in its office in the Senate chamber and still hopes to complete its work in time for the calling of the extra session in January.

Edwin P. Cox, Speaker of the House of Delegates, talking of the reports in regard to the time when the report of the commission would be filed, said that the act creating the Tax Commission contained provisions that the report of the commission should be prepared not later than November 1 and requested the governor to call an extra session of the General Assembly for not later than the first Wednesday in January, 1915.

"I believe the law as written will be carried out," said Mr. Cox, "and that report will be ready at the time contemplated."

It has been believed in some circles at the Capitol for some time that the commission would be unable to complete it swork in time for a special session in January and there have been intimations that the winter would pass and merge into spring before the Assembly would meet.

Mr. Cox thinks otherwise. He is of the opinion that the General Assembly resolution makes it necessary for the session to be held on the date named and that the commission will be able to complete its work within the time specified.

"Moreover," said Mr. Cox yesterday, "the large number of farmers in in the General Assembly renders its pecuiarly desirable that the extra session of the Legislature shall be held at as early a date in the winter as possible."

Mr. Cox is confident of a wise reform of the tax laws of the State. He said that he believed the General Assembly, when given the opportunity, will pass such measures as would be fair and just to the taxpayers of the Commonwealth, assisted "as they would be by the able report of the Tax Committee."

KIAUCHAU HOLDING OUT.

Japanese and British Reported To Have Lost Heavily in Attacks on Tsingtau.

Peking, China, Oct. 21—Refugees who have come out of Tsingtau, the position in the German possession in Shantung province are authority for the statement that up to the time they left the Japanese had lost several thousand men before Tsingtau, while the casualties of the Germans did not amount to more than several hundred.

Reliable information obtained in Peking is to the effect that a British detachment sustained a number of casualties while crossing land that had been mined by the Germans in Kiauchau.

Arrivals at the Chinese capital from Siberia say Russian troop trains are traveling westward over the Trans-Siberian Railway hourly.

An uncensored letter received in Peking from a reliable correspondent within the Japanese lines, dated October 9, says the Japanese attacked Tsingtau on several nights, but invariably were repulsed. Once, the correspondent says, the Germans followed the Japanese successfully for a short distance.

RECEIVES FEE OF $35,000.

French Surgeon Well Paid for Operting on German Crown Prince

Paris, Oct. 21—A fee of $35,000 was paid to a French surgeon, of Epernay, for operating on the wounded German crown prince. There was a certain retribution of justice on the size of fee, for $35,000 was the precise amount the Germans demanded as a war contribution from Epernay.

During the battling on the Marne crown prince was seriously wounded. No German surgeon was in Epernay, so the Germans asked a well-known local man, Dr. Vernon, to operate, telling him they would pay any fee. Dr. Vernon fixed the fee at an amount equal to the enforced war contribution, and that sum the German army treasurer paid in gold.

TRY HIM AS WITCH DOCTOR.

It was testified that he sells charms and philters at enormous prices, and that from one family he got $700 for his incantations. He claims to be able to discover thieves, to make people fall in love, and to induce good or bad luck, according to the desires of his clients. In several instances where he failed to perform promises, it was testified, he said rivals had been bribed by the witches to work unfavorably.

State Corporation Commission Completes Work of Assessment.

NEW LAW OPERATIVE.

Telephone, Telegraph, Express, and Steamship Companies Affected by Appraisement.

Richmond, Oct. 21.—Increased values of telephone and telegraph companies, express, steamship and sleeping car companies are shown by the assessments for taxation by the State Corporation Commission, just completed for the year 1914.

Telephone and telegraph companies show an increase in property value of $338,061.31, and an increase in State tax of $4,952.01 over the year 1913.

While the property values of express companies show a decrease of $8,477.00, the State tax increased $154.97 on account of increased mileage. The decrease in value was occasioned by disposition of property in Richmond by Southern Express Company, valued at $10,000, so that there was really a small increase in other portions of the state.

Steamboat and steamship companies show an increase in property values of $74,906, and an increase in State tax of $344.40.

The Pullman Company shows an increase of $78 over the previous year, occasioned by the extension of Pullman service over thirty-nine miles of road during the year. The tax paid by sleeping car companies being $2 per mile of line operated.

AERIAL ARMADA.

Germany Preparing Raid on England With Zeppelins.

Amsterdam, Oct. 21—Information from an authoritative source in Berlin shows that the precautions being taken in London against an airship attack are thoroughly justified, though a bit premature.

While occasional minor raids may be made on London sooner, if Germany gets a foothold on the channel, the grand aerial armada will not be launched against England until February for Germany will not be ready until then.

"We are building 200 aeroplanes especially for the attack on London," said a prominent German aviator. "These are of a new and extra large type, capable of carrying 1,000 pounds in addition to the weight of the pilot and bomb thrower. These new aeroplanes will not be in commission before February. I am training the fliers now at special aviation camps. I have been often in London, I was flying in England last spring."

Asked if there was any truth in the statement that Germany had 50 Zeppelins six weeks ago, he replied frankly, "No."

"That is nonsense," he added, But we are working on new Zeppelins night and day, and by February we shall have 46.

Confirmation of a sort of the planned aerial attack comes from Count Zeppelin himself, who returned to his home yesterday morning after a three days' stay in Berlin.

An American woman, one of the refugee guests, had recognized the venerable count in the lobby, and, rushing up to him, exclaimed:

"Tell me, when are the Zeppelins going to London?"

Count Zeppelin bowed politely, replying.

"Wait and see. Only give us time, madame."

RECOVER AUTOMOBILE

Alexandria Authorities Find Stolen Machine at Annandale, Fairfax County.

A Buick roadster, valued at $1,500 and stolen from Dr. Chambers of Baltimore on October 15th, was recovered by the Alexandria police department last night, and William T. Lunt, alias Wilmer Lockhartd, the alleged thief, was place under arrest, and taken to Baltimore today where he will be tried for the robbery.

Yesterday morning the police were notified that Lunt, who is 22 years of age, had an automobile at Annandale, Fairfax county, about ten miles south of Alexandria. He had painted the body of the car a different color from its original color and this gave rise to the suspicion that the machine had been stolen. An investigation showed that a car of the same kind that was in Annandale had been stolen from Baltimore.

Last night Sergeant Wilkinson, Sergeant Scott and Officer Ferguson accompanied by Mayor Thomas A. Fisher and Police Commissioner Shinn, went to Annandale and located the machine. Lunt was placed under arrest and brought back to the city. He said that he had been given the machine by a man in Baltimore who had asked him to drive it to Richmond. He readily agreed to return to Baltimore without requisition and was taken there this morning by Detective Herman Pohler, of the Baltimore headquarters. According to the police Lunt has a criminal record.

This is the second automobile that has been recovered by the Alexandria police within the last month, a machine that was stolen from Newark, New Jersey, having been found in this city.

GROUND TO DEATH BY CAR.

Victim Kept Alive Till Wife Comes by Holding up Chin.

Philadelphia, Oct. 21.—For two hours last night German Hospital physicians maintained a fading spark of life in the crushed body of Frank Heney, a Baldwin Locomotive Works engineer, who was almost pounded to pulp by a trolley car on Twenty seventh street last night.

When physicians at the hospital examined the vvcitm, they found that nearly every bone in Heney's body had been smashed, but life still existed. By holding up his chin, so that his head was kept as free as possible of blood, they managed to keep him alive until his wife and 15 year old daughter could be brought from their home. He died soon after their arrival.

Heney was trying to cross Twenty seventh street, near Parish, and was struck by the troley car and flung beneath the whels and body wedged under the track.

'YE ARE NOT YOUR OWN'

Evangelist Stark Delivers Another Forceful Address at M. E. Church South.

Evangelist Starke's addresses at the M. E. Church South are still drawing and the crowd is increasing each night. His sermon last night on "Ye Are Not Your Own," was eloquent and earnest, and his talk deeply moved the audience, and apparently made an impression for good.

Another meeting is being arranged for to-night, with an address by Mr. Starke and with special music.

Everybody is cordially invited to these services.

Two pleasing features of the meeting last night was the choir work, under the direction of Mr. Henry K. Field, and two solos rendered by Mrs. Outcault.

Another important and helpful part of the work each night is the outdoor services at 7:15 conducted by Mr. Pierpoint of Trinity church. The Rev. Messrs Kern, Triplett, Duffey, Luttrell, Strausburg, were present and took part in the services.

Mr. Stark's work in this city will come to an end with three monster services next Sunday. An unusually large crowd is expected tonight.

BAR ASSOCIATION.

Senator Root Makes Attack Upon Methods of Making Laws.

Senator Elihu Root, of New York, made a forceful attack upon methods of making laws in the United States and upon methods of administering justice in the courts in an address before the American Bar Association in Memorial Continental Hall, Washington, last night. He thrilled his auditors with a plea to barristers and jurists to lend their influence toward simplification of law making and law administering methods that the people may gain the full benefit of the legislative and judicial branches of their government.

William Howard Taft, president of the association, introduced Senator Root, "not only as a great Secretary of State, and a great Senator, but as the leader of the American bar." Senator Root spoke on the subject, "The Layman's Criticism of the Lawyer," discarding oratorical finery or the cool analytical argument of the bar in driving home the points of his address.

The members of the association visited Mount Vernon this afternoon as the guests of the bar of the District of Columbia. At Mount Vernon the visitors were received by a committee representing the Virginia Bar Association, composed of R. Walton Moore, chairman; Judge L. L. Lewis, of Richmond; Judge J. K. M. Norton, of Alexandria. R. B. Tunstall, of Norfolk, and E. Hilton Jackson, of Fairfax. An address of welcome was delivered by former Governor Montague, of Virginia. Mr. Taft responded as president of the association.

ALEX. COUNTY LIGHTING CO

PREDICTS VICTORY IN NINTH.

Former Speaker Byrd Returns to Richmond From Campaigning Trip.

Richmond, Oct. 21.—"The situation in the Ninth District is most favorable to the cause of R. Tate Irvine," said Richard Evelyn Byrd, United States district attorney for the Western District of Virginia, and former Speaker of the House of Delegates, who arrived in the city last night, after several days of campaigning for his friend in the southwestern section of the State. "I predict an overwhelming victory for him.

"The canvass Mr. Irvine is making is exceedingly forcible. I was with him at about twelve points where he spoke to large and appreciative audiences. He is characteristically making his appeal upon a high and impersonal plane, and is winning greater strength daily.

"Mr. Irvine has always been a progressive Democrat, who has never for a moment wavered from those fundamental conceptions of governmental policies upon which the Democratic party bases its right to exist. His personal friendship, and political support of President Wilson tells strongly in his behalf, because, unquestionably, the people of the country are behind the President.

"He makes a profoundly strong and eloquent appeal when he denounces the plank in the Slemp Bristol platform, which derides the peace policy of Bryan and Wilson.

"Heretofore, Mr. Slemp has had back of him the active support and, it is said, the contributions of the Federal office holders. He had also the power and prestige of a long unbroken succession of Republican administrations behind him. The situation is now changed. The psychology of the situation is with the Democrats. It is a Democratic year, and the stars in their courses are fighting for Democracy.

"With so clean, so attractive, so able a candidate; with a general Democratic trend; with so energetic and forceful a canvass, and with the prestige of our great President behind him, the chances are that Mr. Irvine will be elected by an overwhelming vote. There has never in recent years been so favorable an opportunity. All the Democratic leaders are rallying to his support. Governor Stuart, a host within himself, is aiding his canvass, and the Democrats are in harness everywhere in the district."

CHURCH SET ON FIRE.

Police Think Incendiary at Work Among Chicago Churches.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Fire which wrecked St. Charles Borromeo's Catholic Church Monday was pronounced by the police Tuesday to have been of incendiary origin. The police also are planning to reopen an investigation into a fire, October 12, which burned St. Jaralath's Catholic Church and which started in somewhat similar circumstances as today's blaze.

St. Charles Borromeo's Church had been closed for several months. The blaze started in the interior of the organ and had grown to serious proportions before it was discovered. The police, investigating commented on the reports from New York, where dynamite bombs were exploded in St. Patrick's Cathedral and St. Alphonsus' Church, October 13.

If you have weak lungs, you are generally subject to colds or throat trouble and easily susceptible to serious Lung Trouble. In many cases pneumonia or bronchial troubles leave the lungs in a much weakened condition. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for the throat and lungs which has been found to be very beneficial, even when a change of climate and other treatments failed to bring relief. Read of this case:—

"Gentlemen: In the fall of 1905 I contracted a very severe cold which settled on my lungs. At last I began to raise sputum, and my physician then told me I must go to California immediately. At this time I was advised to take Eckman's Alterative. I stayed at home and commenced taking it the last week in October. I began to improve, and the first week in January, 1906, I resumed my regular occupation, having gained 25 pounds, fully restored to health. It is now seven years since my recovery has been effected, and I cannot praise Eckman's Alterative too highly."

(Signed) W. M. TATEM.

MOVEMENT FOR BOOSTING ALEXANDRIA

While the Chamber of Commerce is constantly working for the expansion of Alexandria's commercial interests, its special endeavors at the present time to attract manufactories to this city are opportune and should receive the encouragement and material aid of every person interested in his native or adopted city. While the chamber represents the the business interests of the city, each individual resident can in his small way aid in the work now in progress.

It is not our purpose to again call attention to the facilities offered by Alexandria for the growth of any enterprise. These have been set forth by the Gazette from time to time during the past half a century. It is but sufficient to say that the city is situated upon a navigable river, but six miles from the capitol of the country, and that railroads from all sections of the United States centre here.

As was stated yesterday, Alexandria already transacts business annually amounting to thirty million dollars. It has forty-eight manufactories in operation, thirty-nine wholesale houses and three hundred and twenty-eight retail stores. But we want more, and there is no good reason why these enterprises could not be doubled.

With one hundred and twenty-six electric and fifty-six steam passenger trains arriving and departing from Alexandria daily, thousands of people come to this city at the present time, many of whom were totally unacquainted with the place a quarter of a century ago.

While Alexandria has not grown as fast in recent years as we have desired, the Gazette has never lost faith, and believes the burden of our dreams will yet be realized.

CELEBRATING TRAFALGAR DAY.

Today is the anniversary of the naval battle off Cape Trafalgar in which England gained a great victory but at a terrible cost, as the renowned Lord Nelson received a fatal wound at the beginning of the fight. The battle was continued by his officers, and at the close England was still mistress of the sea.

The base of the monument to the great hero in Traralgar Square, London, was banked with flowers today, and the words of Nelson, "England expects every man to do his duty," which appear on the monument, appealed to all Englishmen today and caused as much enthusiasm as they did when Nelson hoisted the signal bearing those words at the beginning of the last century.

Previous to the sanguinary conflict Nelson had a premonition that he was about to take his place in Westminster Abbey, and he ordered that his coffin be made from the mast of his flagship. After the decks had been cleared for action the Admiral appeared on deck attired in a striking uniform which had been presented him for his gallantry. An officer called attention to the fact that the enemy would recognize him and make him a target. He replied by saying it had been given him to wear. Later a bullet from a French man-of-war struck the Admiral on the shoulder. He realized it was his death wound, and exclaimed, "They have done for me at last!"

Instead of Westminster Abbey, his remains rest in a sarcophagus near that of the Duke of Wellington in St. Paul's Cathedral. His shaft in Trafalgar Square, London, has been viewed by thousands of all nations for many years. The anniversary exercises today have enthused the people and caused many to rush to the colors in order to fight for old England.

THE LATE CAPTAIN ROBERT E. LEE.

The announcement of the death of Captain Robert E. Lee, which took place at Upperville, Fauquier county, Monday night, was made in yesterday's Gazette. The deceased was the last son of the late General Robert E. Lee, who commanded the Army of Northern Virginia during the civil war. His brother, George Washington Custis Lee, died recently at Ravensworth, near Alexandria.

Captain Lee was born at Arlington, October 27, 1843. Inheriting the martial instinct of his illustrious sire, at the beginning of the war between the states his pride of birth did not lead him to seek a commission, but he enlisted as a private in the Rockbridge Artillery, in which he served to the end of the conflict, having been made a captain in the meantime. He was of the same gentle and quiet spirit as his father, and at the collapse of the Confederacy, he retired to his farm and devoted the remainder of his life to agriculture and literature.

His father, who at the close of the war found himself one of the most prominent men in the world, shrinked from notoriety and secreted himself far from the maddening crowd in the shade of a Virginia University. Both father and son were of the same mould.

Captain Lee in early life often mingled with the people of Alexandria, as had been the wont of his father. He had many acquaintances here who bestowed upon him the esteem which he received from all who knew him.

JAPAN SEIZES ISLANDS.

All of Marianne Group, Except Guam, in Mikado Hands

Tokyo, Oct. 21—The navy department has announced the occupation, for military purposes, of strategically important islands in the Marianne (or Ladrone) Marshall, East Caroline, and West Caroline archipelagos.

Jaluit, in the Marshall group, was occupied October 14 by a division of the Japanese fleet. Jaluit, it is explained, was the base of the enemy's maritime operations in the Marianne Marshall, and Eastern and Western Caroline archipelagos.

The Japanese found two German vessels there. One sent herself to the bottom, and the other was captured with her crew. No damage was suffered by the Japanese fleet.

The German ships at Jaluit were survey ships.

According to the leading Japanese newspapers, the Japanese fleet which took for military purposes islands in the Marianne, Marshall, East Caroline, and West Caroline archipelagoes, occupied all the islands of the Marianne group except Guam which is owned by the United States.

Human Factors in Good Service

There are three parties to every telephone conversation--the party calling, the trained operator, and the party who answers. All three share alike the responsibility for quick and accurate telephone service.

The calling party should give the correct number in a distinct voice, speaking directly into the transmitter, and wait at the telephone until the party answers or the operator reports. The called party should answer promptly.

Patience on the part of the telephone user and the telephone operator is also essential to good service.

PRICE MAINTENANCE.

Its Necessity to Aid Consumer.

Many big industries engaged in national trade have often in the past done openly what the small concerns in their limited fields have done secretly—varied prices according to the degree of competition at different times and places. Their object has been to secure the highest price to be had, irrespective of whether the buyer was held up or not.

The principle of selling goods at a close margin at one place to meet or to kill competition, and charging a high price, to make up for it, where little or no competition exists, is economically wrong and unfair to the buyer. Every article offered for sale should have a uniform price plainly marked upon it.

Manufacturers will then have to see that the price of their goods is a reasonable one, so they will sell, and at the same time they will provide enough profit to pay the jobber and dealer fairly for handling the goods at a uniform price. This will inspire confidence in the consumer, because he will know the price can not be cut and must, therefore, be a reasonable one to permit the goods to sell. He will buy such goods in preference to a small selling article sold at exaggerated profits.

Everybody will benefit from price maintenance in this way. It will protect the manufacturer who has built up well-known brands, also the newcomer who is seeking to do so. Distributors will be protected in handling it at a fair profit, and they will not be forced, through fear of cut-throat competition, to build up their own private brands at much expense.

When you buy Certain-teed you have our real guarantee that it will last at least five years for 1-ply, ten years for 2-ply and fifteen years for 3-ply, and this guarantee is backed by the world's largest roofing mills.

There is a dealer in your city or town who handles Certain-teed products. He will be glad to give you information and prices.

What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.

FACIAL FOLIAGE.

Looking For Mother's Spectacles in Father's Whiskers.

In the American Magazine James Montgomery Flagg writes an amusing piece entitled "Whiskerculture." Following is an extract:

"It's a heartrending sight in any case, this facial landscape gardening, from the time that they innocently say at breakfast, 'You forgot to shave this morning, dear!' (it has taken three days for even the rough sketch you show them) to the dreadful harvest of your noxious inspiration.

"Picture the nervous strain on the wife and babes as they witness the gradual budding (blossoming) and fruition of the horror. How they sadly watch the head of the house slowly disappearing in a cloud of brambles.

"See those outstretched dimpled arms and hear those sobbing voices. 'Come back to us, papa!'

"Isn't your pride touched on the raw when your wife lifts up the door mat in the vestibule and kisses it good night on account of its comparative silkiness? Stop, consider, you who through some inherited mental weakness do not know the difference between right and whiskers—hesitate! Why add to the strain of family life? Even if you have provided your wife with a vacuum cleaner why multiply the cares of a busy housekeeper?

"Ask yourself if it will add in any way to the pleasure of any one in the family. When your mother has mislaid her steel rimmed spectacles does it not make one more place that has to be ransacked?

"Men who embark on a career of whiskerculture are obviously thoughtless. What man would cultivate wistaria chinensis on his chin if he visualized himself at some future breakfast having to loop up those vines with portiere cords in order to slide a poached egg in without mutilating it?"

OBJECTS ON THE MOON.

The Size They Must Be to Show in Our Different Telescopes.

The Abbe Moreux, director of the astronomical observatory of Bourges, France, answers in Cosmos the question, "What is the smallest object visible on the moon?"

First, it is necessary to know what is the smallest angular magnitude that the naked eye can perceive. Experiment, says the abbe, proves this to be thirty seconds. In other words, an object that subtends an arc of thirty seconds is first visible to the naked eye. Therefore an object having an angular diameter of one second can be seen when it is magnified thirty times. An arc of one second represents about 6,000 square feet at the center of the lunar disc. Hence, a telescope that magnifies thirty times will make visible a spot 6,000 feet in diameter on the surface of the moon.

A more powerful telescope will reveal smaller objects. One with four inches aperture and a power of 300 will show objects of 600 feet diameter. One with a power of 2,000 diameters will reveal details measuring about ninety feet.

This, however, is theory. It takes a trained and practiced eye to see fine details through a telescope. The agitation of the earth's atmosphere by winds and currents interferes terribly with the use of very high powers in telescopes. An enlargement of 400 diameters almost exceeds the practical limit. It can be used only on perfectly clear, still nights when the moon is high above the horizon. This will reveal objects 450 feet in diameter, but will not show any form or detail.

Levels of Atlantic and Pacific.

At certain stages of the tide the levels of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans at the isthmus of Panama differ materially. At Colon the difference between high and low water is not much more than twenty-three inches, while at Panama it is generally thirteen feet and at times as much as nineteen feet. The current that would be produced by this condition of things in a sea level canal would seriously interfere with navigation, but under the present arrangement of a locked canal the difficulty is obviated. The Suez canal presented no such difficulty, the difference in tide level at Port Said and Suez being of a trifling nature.—New York American.

An Old Acquaintance.

A resourceful girl, having danced a pink party frock to ribbons, took what was left of it and made a wonderful lamp shade. The next evening she was entertaining a caller in the soft light and she said to him quite casually: "How do you like my new lamp shade?"

William regarded it for a moment critically, then he said: "The last time I saw that shade I danced with it."—New York Post.

Imposition.

TENEMENT DYNAMITED.

Nine Homes Wrecked—Twenty or Thirty Persons Believed to Have Been Killed.

Montreal Oct. 21.—Shattered by a dynamite explosion, a large tenement building in Frontenac street, containing nine homes, collapsed last night, burrying all the occupants in the ruins. While many escaped with slight injuries, it is feared the dead may number 20 or 30.

The explosion is said to have been a deliberate act of a band of Austrian laborers, who had quarreled over the war with Russians in the building and had been turned out.

At the time of the explosion nearly all families in the tenements were at supper. Windows were broken nearly a mile away and balconies and other woodwork from houses in other streets torn from housefronts and demolished.

The escape of most of the tenants from death is considered remarkable as the interior of the house was wrecked from cellar to roof.

Paul Belanger and Joseph Lafreniere, who were passing along Frontenac street at the time, told the police they saw two men, who looked like foreigners, carry a large round object into one of the doorways of the block.

An instant later a terrific explosion occurred and the body of one of the men was hurled back on the sidewalk. The other man did not reappear and is supposed to have been buried in the ruins.

Don't Let a Cold Settle on Your Lungs

Many cases of Lung Trouble can be traced directly to a severe cold which has been neglected, and which, as a result, has affected the lungs. If you have a persistent cough or cold, take warning before it is too late. Eckman's Alterative is most beneficial in such cases and has been the means of completely restoring to health many persons who had serious lung trouble. Read of this case:—

N. J. Pleasantville, N. J.

"Gentlemen: During the winter of 1911 I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. The doctor pronounced it lung trouble. I tried nearly every preparation without any result and kept getting worse. Eckman's Alterative was recommended to me and I commenced using it as a last resort. The first bottle seemed to give no relief; in fact, I seemed to feel worse, but I kept on using the medicine and found out the first bottle had really started me on the road to recovery by loosening the mucus and making me expectorate freely. After using the medicine for some time my cough ceased, I gained flesh and today I am a well man."

(Signed) GEO. M. BATES.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists Price $1.00 and $2.00 a bottle.

Check the Symptoms, of Lung Trouble

One of the many reasons why Lung Trouble is so difficult to fight is because the disease is often of a very flattering nature. The patient may look well, but in reality is fast losing strength by continued night sweats, fever and cough. These symptoms should be checked as quickly as possible. Eckman's Alterative is beneficial in checking fever and night sweats and it has brought about many complete recoveries. Read this case:—
305 W. 36th St., New York.
"Gentlemen: I am writing you this testimonial that others may know what your Alterative has done for me. Since I was a very young woman I was a sufferer from Bronchitis. I tried doctor after doctor, getting little or no benefit. Finally I had night sweats, weak spells and lost rapidly in weight and my doctor told me if they were not checked I would have Lung Trouble. Miss Mary Kerhamer, who is a friend of mine, recovered after taking your Alterative and insisted that I try it. I am now, after two years, perfectly well, strong and healthy."

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

POPE'S NEW ENCYCLICAL.

Not Temporal Power, But Facilities for Exercise of Spiritual Power

Paris, Oct. 21.—Jean De Bonnefon, a leading French Catholic, reveals that Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austro Hungary, in an autograph letter, implored Pope Benedict XV. to bless the Austro Hungarian army. The Pope refused, reminding the Austrian Emperor that he is also the spiritual protector of the Servian Catholics. The Kings of Bavaria and Saxony also asked the Pope to bless their Catholic troops, but the requests were ignored.

M. Bonnefon makes public part of the new encyclical on war which Pope Benedict XV. completed on October 3rd. In it the pontiff asks:

"What would be the position of the papacy, materially deprived of liberty and enclosed in a narrow circle of a state, if that state separated it from all communication with civilization or even exposed the person or the Pope and the sacred college to a bombardment of Rome, which is always possible in an European war?

"We don't demand temporal power, but facilities for the exercise of spiritual power.

"The Pope assumes the attitude of the guardian of the rights of men and the natural protector of religious buildings belonging to all denominations and the hospitals of all nations during war."
